MAYOR A.B. IRVIN DIES IN THE WEST

Succumbs in Hospital at Los Angeles, Where He Had Gone on Account of Failing Health

BORN AND REARED IN COUNTY

Identified With Many Business Interests in Rushville During a Very Active Career

A. B. Irvin, age seventy years, mayor of Rushville and native of Rush county, died in a hospital at Los Angeles, California, Friday afternoon at two o'clock, Pacific time, four o'clock Central time, according to a message received here Friday evening.

Word had been received earlier in the day that Mr. Irvin was in a critical condition and not expected to live. He left here early in January for the Pacific coast on account of ill health, and fear was then expressed by his friends and relatives that he would never return. Mr. Irvin had been in failing health for some time.

David M. Kiser of St. Louis, Mo., son-in-law of the deceased, has left for Los Angeles and will meet the body enroute to this city, where the remains will be brought for funeral services and burial. It is not known yet just when the body will arrive.

Mr. Irvin was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Irvin and was born July 14, 1850, in a cabin in Raleigh where the school building now stands. He was educated in the county schools and attended the Indianapolis law school, returning to Rushville to engage in the practice of law. He was a partner of John W. Thomas for a short time.

Mr. Irvin practiced law from 1872 to 1891 and during that time served as city attorney for eight years—from May, 1884 until May, 1892. In 1889 he organized the first permanent plan building association in Rushville, now known as Building Association No. 10, and continued as its secretary from its inception until his death.

In 1891 Mr. Irvin retired from the practice of law and he and the late George H. Puntenny organized the Farmers Banking Company, with which organization he was identified as an official until his retirement January 22 of this year when he sold his interests to Samuel L. Samuel H. and Bert L. Trabue. The name of the Farmers Banking Company was changed to the Farmers Bank.

TO ELECT SUCCESSOR WITHIN FIFTEEN DAYS

Law Provides City Council Shall Choose New Mayor in Not Less Than 10 or More Than 15 Days

SEVERAL NAMES SUGGESTED

Who will fill out the unexpired term of Mayor A. B. Irvin, who died in Los Angeles, California, Friday evening, was one of the principal topics of discussion in Rushville today. Several names were suggested for the place, but it was believed that the council would not act until after the mayor's funeral is held. The city has been without a mayor since Mr. Irvin left here a few weeks ago.

The law provides that in case of the death or resignation of the mayor, where there is no city controller, the city council shall appoint one of the councilmen to serve as mayor pro tempore until the vacancy is filled. The statute says the council shall give notice by legal publication of the vacancy and shall elect a successor in not less than ten days or more than fifteen days. Some doubt is expressed about the council appointing a mayor pro tempore because a successor must be elected within fifteen days at the latest.

There was some talk of electing one of the republican candidates for the nomination, but this was regarded as ill-advised because it would give the candidate thus chosen an advantage.

CONFIRMS HUGHES RUMOR

President-Elect Harding Says He Will be Secretary of State

(By United Press)
St. Augustine, Fla., Feb. 19—Formal announcement of the appointment of Charles Evans Hughes of New York as secretary of state in President-elect Harding's cabinet, was made here today by Harding. Announcement of Hughes' appointment followed a conference here today. It has been generally understood for several days that Hughes would be the next secretary of state.

Harding first tendered the office to Hughes shortly after his election, but his acceptance was delayed until he considered the matter.

BASKETBALL IS TOPIC IN SENATE

Sen. Swain Introduces Bill For Investigation of "Excessive Interest" in The Game

REFERS TO HIGH SCHOOLS

House Follows Senate in Rejecting Duplicate of Senate Measure—Barker Bill Passed

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 19—High school interest in basketball was a paramount topic in the state senate today. Senator Swain of Pendleton introduced a bill looking toward an investigation of what he termed "excessive interest in basketball in the Indiana high school," with a view of limiting the number of games in determining the extent to which the sport has been professionalized.

Senator Swain's measure was rejected on motion of Senator Nedil. Speaking on his resolution, Senator Swain declared that the basketball season runs for about six months and that during that time the teachers and the scholars forget their duties.

He said $17,000 was spent for the sport in the Anderson high school last year. The resolution provides that the state board of education conduct the probe.

Representative Curry made an attempt to put a duplicate of the Swain resolution through the house but that body also rejected it on motion of Representative Willis of Steuben county.

The house of representatives passed the bill introduced by Representative Willis of Steuben county.

The house of representatives passed the bill introduced by Representative Barker of Boone county, providing for the dissolution of the state board of agriculture. This measure was a companion to the bill still pending which provides for the reorganization of the board under state control. The vote was unanimous.

By a vote of 27 to 7 the senate passed Senator Holmes' bill providing that public officials who are required to give bond, may obtain sureties at public expense.

Opposed to the measure, Senator McCulloch of Rockport, declared it would cost the state $100,000 annually and that this legislature is coming to be known as "the twenty million dollar assembly."

A bill was introduced in the house which would empower the city councils to pass an ordinance regulating sales of beverages containing less than 1/4 of 1 percent alcohol.

TO OPEN NEW ROAD

The county commissioners decided at a special meeting today to open a new road near the O'Neal farm south of Rushville. The petition was filed by Jess Havens and others and the commissioners decided today the road would be of public utility. The county engineer was ordered to draw plans and specifications.

MANILLA DOPED TO REACH FINAL

Walker Township Five Proves "Dark Horse" of High School Invitational Tournament

ELIMINATES CARTHAGE, 17-14

Rushville Certain to Play Tonight, Putting Raleigh and Arlington Out of Running

* LOCAL TOURNEY RESULTS *

Morning Games
Rushville 30; Raleigh 6
Arlington 28; Webb 19
Manilla 17; Carthage 14
Fairview 56; New Salem 12

Afternoon Games
Rushville 47; Arlington 8
Fairview 9; Manilla 8 (first half)

Tonight

Rushville vs Manilla or Fairview.
The high school basketball tourney being held here today at the Graham Annex gymnasium, attracted big crowds this morning, and this afternoon a larger crowd was on hand, with the expectation for a record attendance tonight at the final game.

Early indications pointed to Rushville, playing in the final game tonight, with either Manilla or Fairview playing as their opponents, and the "dope" gives the Manilla team a preference over Fairview.

The Manilla team this morning loomed up more as a "dark horse", as it was generally expected that Carthage would down them, but the Quaker team seemed to be off form, and could not get together, while the new green and white suits of the Manilla quintet might have added a great deal to their victory.

Four teams were eliminated this morning, Carthage, Raleigh, New Salem and Webb. The best game of the morning was between Carthage and Manilla.

The fact that Manilla has twice defeated Fairview this season, is the reason why they are jointed out as "dope" winners this afternoon, but the Fairview team may show a surprise and defeat the Walker township five.

All of the games are fifteen minute halves, and are in charge of Everett Case, referee. The final game tonight will begin at 7:15, and only one contest will be played.

Rushville 47; Arlington 8

The Rushville high school earned the right to play in the final game tonight, when they defeated the Arlington high school in the first game of the semi-finals this afternoon, by the score of 47 to 8.

Rushville jumped into the game right at the start and began to pile up the markers, and when the first half had ended the score was 18 to 5. The local team played in better form this afternoon than they did in the opening game this morning. Arlington furnished better opposition than the Raleigh team did, and the losers fought hard even until the last whistle.

In the last half endurance showed for the Rushville team when they registered 29 markers while Arlington was allowed 3. E. Headlee was closely guarded in this frame and did not make a point.

The line up and summary:
Rushville (47) Arlington (8)
L. Headlee F. Rigsbee
Miller F. A. Birt
E. Headlee C. Nelson
Eakins G. Macy
Frazee G. Marshall
Substitutions: Arlington, Mitchell and D. Birt.
Field goals: L. Headlee 5, Miller 8, E. Headlee 5, Eakins 5, A. Birt, Nelson 2.
Foul goals: Eakins, Rigsbee 2.

Fairview 56; New Salem 12

The last morning game proved to be an easy one for Fairview when they took the New Salem team, by the score of 56 to 12.

The Fairview team were giants in comparison to the New Salem team, and they scored almost at their leisure. Wilson, a small forward for the losers, was good on hitting the basket and scored all points, the game at half time ending 27 to 9.

In the last half Peters, the tall

The Rushville Odd Fellows loomed up as winners in the district tourney which started yesterday at Greensburg, when they reached the semi-finals, winning from Milan this morning 37 to 17, and taking Westport this afternoon at three o'clock.

The twelve teams which were entered in the tourney began their play yesterday afternoon, Manilla, Connersville and Arlington failing to put in an appearance.

The first game for Rushville yesterday afternoon at five o'clock was forfeited by the Arlington team. The Moscow team, which was expected to figure in the finals, met their defeat at the hands of the Milan team last night, 28 to 10, which put Rushville and Milan into the game this morning.

The Odd Fellows really expected a stiff game and gave them the best they had, and consequently won out 37 to 17, after having a comfortable lead, 18 to 8, at the end of the first half.

This afternoon four teams remained in the running, Greensburg, Aurora, Westport and Rushville. It was expected that Aurora would take Greensburg and Rushville would take Westport, leaving the final game tonight between Aurora and the Odd Fellows.

Many Rushville fans and members of the Odd Fellows lodge, were planning to go to Greensburg tonight in order to help their team win. It also was being planned to take the Odd Fellows band along to help celebrate a victory.

In the game this morning the Odd Fellows displayed real basketball and simply took the heart out of the Milan team by their fast playing.

Carthage went down to defeat last night before the Greensburg team, and this morning another Rush county team, Fairview, was eliminated by Aurora, in an overtime contest 23 to 18. In this game, the two teams played all of the way through on equal terms, and the first half ended in a draw, 8 to 8. When the final whistle blew, the score was tied at 16 points. The extra five minutes overtime gave the Aurora team the victory, 23 to 18.

The score and summary of the Rushville-Milan game this morning, is as follows:

Odd Fellows (37) Milan (17)
Stoops F. Thompson
Titsworth F. Smith
Martin C. Laws
Henley G. Comeyer
Petty G. Voss
Substitutions: Keating for Henley; Field goals: Stoops 6, Martin 7, Titsworth 2, Henley, Thompson 5, Smith, Comeyer, Voss. Foul goals: Titsworth 3, Stoops, Henley, Thompson.

MAIL ROBBERS CAUGHT

GOLD WARNING REPEATED

Bitterest Cold Weather of Winter Hovers Over United States

(By United Press)
Washington, Feb. 19—The bitterest cold weather of the winter hovered over the United States today, the weather bureau announced. The cold is preceded by heavy rains and snow. Almost normal cold weather prevails in North Dakota and Northern Minnesota, the report said. Several stations in the north west reported the minimum cold temperature of 34 degrees below zero. The temperature has fallen throughout New England, north gulf states and the north west.

The first cold wave was issued Friday by the weather bureau.

URGE YEAR'S BAN ON IMMIGRATION

Senatorial Group Favors Complete Exclusion of Immigrants For Several Reasons

SEES TYPHUS AS A MENACE

Declares Influx of Foreign Laborers Only Aid in Industrial Unrest Now Apparent

(By United Press)
Washington, Feb. 19—Sergt. General Cummings of the United States public health service today extended the federal sanction board against the deadly typhus plague and sleeping sickness.

Typhus now ravaging Poland has appeared sporadically here. Deaths from sleeping sickness are being reported with increasing frequency.

Washington, Feb. 19—Immigration, declared before the senate today to health and industry in this country, senators opposed to immigration, declared before the senate today.

The typhus menace which is confronting this country, is causing efforts to be made to forbid the human flow of immigrants from the disease stricken countries of Europe. The group of senators favoring this act, led by Senators Harrison, Missouri, Johnson, California; and Harris of Georgia, urge complete exclusion of immigrants for a year or at least more drastic legislation than that represented by the Dillingham measure.

The bill would permit the entrance of five percent of all foreigners of any nationality now residing in the United States.

"Present economic conditions in the United States", Harris told the United Press today, "demand we suspend immigration for at least a year and take stock of ourselves."

"There are not enough jobs in this country for the American people now, let alone the influx of foreign laborers. These foreigners not only aid in the industrial unrest but bring with them any sort of politics which have no place in this country's condition."

"In addition, the recent appearance of typhus should warn us that the lower classes of immigration is dangerous to the health of the country."

COUNCIL CALLED FOR MAR. 16

To Hear Remonstrance Against Richland School Bond Issue

Phil Wilk, county auditor, announced today that the county council would be called in session Wednesday, March 16, to hear the remonstrance against a bond issue to erect a consolidated school building for Richland township at Hawkin's Corner, which has been ordered by the township advisory board.

The county auditor conferred with Fred Goddard, Richland township trustee, in fixing the date. This will be the first time the "home rule" law passed by the legislature last summer was ever invoked here.

WILL ENLARGE PIG CLUB WORK IN 1921

Rush County Big Type Poland China Breeders' Association Holds Annual Meeting

OLD OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

Club Work, Combination Sale, Tours and Miscellaneous Meetings on Program For Year

Definite plans to enlarge upon the Boys Pig Club work was definitely decided upon at the annual meeting of the Rush county Big Type Poland China Breeder's association, which was held Friday in the court house assembly room, and a committee was appointed to extend the idea and take complete charge of all pig club work.

A program for the year to include a combination sale, a number of tours and miscellaneous meetings, in addition to the club work, was outlined at the meeting, which was taken up with routine business and reports, including the election of officers. The present officers were re-elected to serve for the current year as follows: A. Link Jinks, president; Floyd Williams, vice-president, and Glen Kirkham, secretary treasurer.

Mr. Williams, O. P. Ellison, and Jess Gray were appointed as a committee to have charge of all pig club work and to make arrangements for the distribution of pigs and the holding of a Pig Club Show in Rushville late in the summer or early in the fall.

Members expressed their opinion that the hog tour conducted by the association last summer was a great success and they wished similar tours arranged for the coming summer. O. J. Cook, B. V. Miller, D. D. Ball were named as a committee to arrange for these tours.

The association plans another combination sale for next fall and Sept. 24 is the tentative date set. The following sale committee was named: U. S. Maffett, Glen Kirkham, O. J. Cook, N. P. Jones, and D. D. Ball.

Mr. Huber Mr. Williams and M. A. Kendall were appointed as a committee to look after advertising for the association. This committee is laying plans to publish a directory of the association in the near future.

FIRST WELL FOR COLE OIL AND GAS COMPANY

Message Received Today Says Nice Flow of Oil Was Struck on Local Concern's Leases

IS NEAR NEW WESTON, OHIO

A nice flow of oil was struck on leases of the Cole Oil and Gas company of this city late Friday evening, near New Weston, Ohio, according to a telegram received this morning by Homer Cole, secretary of the company. Officials of the company were elated and planned to go to New Weston Monday to see the well shot.

The driller struck oil at 34 feet in the sand, the message said, which Mr. Cole stated was 1234 feet below the surface of the earth. The well is on the W. C. Disher lease, which is one of about 1200 acres of leases which the company owns in the territory adjacent to New Weston.

The local company was formed several months ago after Mr. Cole discovered a good well on the Disher farm while closing a deal for a farm adjoining Disher's. That well, which has 800 feet of fluid in it, is the property of the Cole company. The Cole company's leases are directly east of the Jay county, Indiana, field.

Officers of the company are: John D. Megee, president; M. J. Ogden, vice-president, and E. B. Casady, treasurer. Will Newbold is the company's legal advisor.

DEMAND CURTAINS FOR WAX MODELS
(By United Press)

Los Angeles, Feb. 19—It looks like "curtains" for the cold, bad women of wax.

Authorities are pondering over a request by a delegation of local women moralists, who demand that wax figures of women in display windows or downtown stores be dressed and undressed behind drawn curtains.

Crowds of men, sometimes numbering 200, say these women, gather and watch while the garments are removed from the mannikins—or womanlike—before they are tucked away for the night.

Frequently, it is charged, the models are entirely denuded of gowns, corsets, teddy—well, everything.

Traffic often is blocked, the delegation added.

Two Meanings in Dream.
To dream of a flood where houses and people are carried away foretells great disaster, loss in business and mental weakness, unless you swim out of the flood, when it signifies power and wealth.

WEEKLY MARKETGRAM

(U. S. Bureau of Markets)

Washington, Feb. 19—For the week ending Feb. 18:

Fruits & Vegetables—Sacked round whites potatoes down 5-8c per 100 lbs. f. o. b. northern shipping points at 80-90c. Chicago carlot market down 10c, reaching $1.05-1.15 sacked. Round whites held around $1 at Western New York shipping points.

Cold storage Baldwins firm at western New York f. o. b. stations around $4.25 per barrel. Baldwins firm in city wholesale markets at $4.50-5.00; York Imperials at $3.75-4.50. Northwestern extra fancy Winesaps firm New York $3.50-4.50 up 10c f. o. b. at $2.25-2.35.

Danish type cabbage weak around $8 per ton f. o. b.; eastern city-wholesale markets up $1-2 per ton closing $14-18. Florida new cabbage weak at $1.25-2.00 per 1½ bu. hampers. Florida celery slightly weaker in eastern markets at $2.50-3.00. Shipping points steady $1.60-1.75. California Golden Heart celery mostly $5.50-6.50 per crate in mid-western markets; 30-35c per dozen bunches f. o. b.

Eastern yellow sweet potatoes steady at $1.50-2 per bu. hamper. New Jersey stock up 25c Chicago 2¢ $2.75-3.

Carlot shipments were ended Feb. 17; potatoes 2,798 cars, boxed apples 515, barreled apples 1,021, cabbage 532, celery 475, lettuce 347, onions 371, sweet potatoes 411. Shipments week ended Feb. 10th: potatoes 2,789, boxed apples, 474, barreled apples 1,096, cabbage 406, celery 355 lettuce, 342, onions 349, sweet potatoes 388.

Grain—Prices advanced about 10c the early part of week as result of reports of green bugs in Southwest. An overbought condition was then disclosed and prices reacted about 4c. Larger movement, small demand and entire lack of export business than caused a further decline despite more serious reports regarding green bugs, on the 17th colder weather and snow were reported in the bug territory. This influenced market lower, but prices later rallied on reports of export business and Hessian fly talk from winter wheat state. For the week Chicago March wheat advanced 2½c closing at $1.67½, May corn 1½c at 60½c.

Kansas City March wheat up 1c at $1.57½. Chicago May wheat $1.57½. In Chicago cash market No. 2 red winter wheat 26-31c over Chicago March; No. 2 hard 4-6c over; No. 3 mixed corn 3½-4½ under May; yellow 3½-4½c under.

Hay and Feed—On account of colder weather and light receipts hay market slightly improved over conditions early in week but prices still lower than a week ago in most markets. Demand remains light, only few orders for shipment being received in western markets. Kansas City congested with poor hay. Further declines likely. No. 1 timothy New York $31.50, Chicago $24, Cincinnati $23, Memphis $29, Kansas City $18.50, No. 1 alfalfa Kansas City $19.50, Memphis $30. Prices of several feed stuffs, advanced 50-150 due principally to bidding up by jobbers as country demand is showing no signs of improvement. Mills state that business cannot be obtained at the high prices and that they view the advance as of a temporary character. Stocks remain ample, in several sections burdensome. No particular activity noted except in wheat feeds. Resales by jobbers at higher prices reported. Movement, receipts and production satisfactory. 43% cotton seed meal quoted Chicago market $1.50 below mill price. Linseed meal and gluten feed dull. Quoted: Bran $20.50, middlings $20, Minneapolis; flour middlings $27, red dow $33, Chicago; linseed meal $38, Minneapolis $40, Buffalo 36° cottonseed meal $26.50 Memphis; No. 1 alfalfa meal $20 Kansas City, white hominy feed $32, northwestern, $33 Southeastern markets; gluten feed $35, Chicago.

Livestock & Meats—Compared with a week ago hog prices at Chicago were nearly steady, declines of 10-15c on some grades being counterbalanced by equal advances on others. Beef steers up 65-90c; better grades of cows and heifers 50-75c; common grades unchanged. Feeder steers advanced 25-1.00 per 100 lbs. Fat lambs up 25c; feeding lambs down 25c. Fat ewes gained 25-50c. February 18 Chicago prices: hogs, bulk of sales, $8.85-9.50; medium and good beef steers $8.40-10.15; butcher cows and heifers $4-9.25; feeder steers $7-8.75; light and medium weight veal calves $9.50-12.25; fat lambs, $6.75-9.75; feeding lambs $6.25-7.50; yearlings, $5.50-7.25; fat ewes 3.50-5.25. Eastern wholesale fresh meat markets firm to slightly higher than a week ago. Beef and pork loins steady—to $1 higher mutton up $1-2; veal steady to $1 higher. February 18 prices good grade meats; beef $13.50-15; veal $18-20; lamb $18-20; mutton $10-12; light pork loins $19-21.50; heavy loins $14.18.

Dairy Products—During the past week 92 score butter has advanced ½-1c, daily with other grades following closely. Prices on the 18th are practically back to where they were three weeks ago when the decline began. Demand is now very firm, trading very active. Feb. 18 prices 92 score; Phila 48½c, N. Y. & Boston 48c, Chicago 47c. With scarcely more than a steady market cheese prices have shown but very little change the past week. Smaller styles are least in demand with prices showing wider ranges than on other style. Majority sales price range 25-25½c on cost styles.

Cotton—The average price of middling spot cotton in the 10 designated markets declined 27 points during week, closing at 12.91c. This is the lowest point reached this season. March future contracts down 46 points at 13.10c.

DOOR KEEPERS SEEK ABSENT LEGISLATORS

Are Kept Busy Hunting For Senators and Representatives When Voting Time Comes Near

THEY LIKE TO DODGE ISSUES

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 19—Doorkeepers of the house and senate of the state legislature have been kept busy during the present session bringing in the members who absent themselves just before votes are taken on much contested bills. The legislators either flee to some state office or seek refuge in the other house of the legislature as a vote impends.

One of the most recent occasions for dodging was when Senator Dunn's bill to make the state prohibition law "bone dry", came up on a test of strength in the senate. The senate doorkeepers led by their chief, Jerome Brown, rounded up the absentees.

Another occasion was when the senate took up the Baxter anti-strike picketing bill. One senator made a hurried exit and he was found in the chamber of the house of representatives.

At another time, Brown and his lieutenants went to a local hotel frequented by the legislators and brought in the absentees so that a deciding vote could be cast on a measure under consideration.

No Naval Holiday For Us

It is the soundest wisdom that prompted the senate committee on naval affairs to report against any suspension of our naval building program or the substitution of other types of fighting craft for the big battleship. The senate adopted a resolution directing the committee to ascertain whether it would be advisable for this country to enter upon a six months' vacation in naval construction. With Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington as chairman, a subcommittee conducted the investigation and submitted the report which the full committee adopted.

"It is not practical," says the report, "and is not a sound policy to suspend the naval construction program of the United States now in progress for a period of six months nor at all." It is shown that even though Great Britain enters upon a naval holiday the completion of our fleet only to an equal strength with hers. Much of the report is devoted to an exposure of the fallacy of the argument that the capital ship is obsolete—an argument advanced by those who place a mistaken reliance on the airship and submarine as the dominant weapons of the future.

The report declares that the arguments against the big ship are based on "the old fallacy that war can be cheaply won by hitting dodging and running." It is recalled that the same agitation against building of fighting ships occurred in the early eighties, when the automobile torpedo first became a weapon of fair accuracy. It was claimed at that time that a small torpedo boat, costing 100,000, would be able to destroy a battleship costing millions. But defensive armament met the new foe and defeated its danger. The history of the submarine in the past few years has been precisely similar. Developed to a high degree of perfection by the Germans, it nearly succeeded in winning the war for them, but means for meeting its attack were discovered in time to save the cause for the allies. It is a fact, says Senator Poindexter in the report, that not a single ship of the grand fleet was sunk at the battle of Jutland by torpedoes, despite the fact that great numbers of them were launched by the Germans. Furthermore, Admiral Jellicoe's vessels cruised at will in the North Sea for months without loss, although the waters were infested with submarines all of that time.

The fact is in the opinion of the naval committee, that the war was won by the potential power of the allied battleships. The enemy ships were kept confined to their ports and the sea lanes were kept open for the transportation of supplies and troops to the western front. The morale of the German naval personnel was destroyed and the offensive power of the German fleet crippled by inaction.

"Situated as is the United States," the report concludes, "with oceans separating it from other great powers, its first line of defense must necessarily be its navy, and so long as it has a battle fleet which can hold the sea against attack, both its continental territory and its island possessions, as well as its commerce and the rights and interests of its citizens upon the high seas are secure—regardless of the comparative size of the armies of the world. On the other hand, if from lack of heavy ships of the line, or other weaknesses, its navy cannot hold the sea against attack, then, even though it might have the greatest army in the world, its island possessions would fall away from it, its commerce would be destroyed, its coasts blockaded and subjected to constant attacks."

Once there was a time when a fellow would ask nothing better than a fortune invested in government bonds. Now he can hardly conceive of anything worse.

Certain people apparently go on the assumption that the more smoking they do in this world the less they will have to endure in the next one.

If present conditions of improvement continue, one will soon be able to think of Mexico without letting out a string of swear words.

It is quite true that work never kills some people. They never give it a chance.

The biggest fib some people ever tell is when they insist that they are always truthful.

It is possible for a wise man to become foolish, but the fool never leaves his class.

THE TREND of LEGISLATION

BY GEO. W. STOUT
State Chamber of Commerce

Indianapolis Ind., Feb. 19—In panning for the removal of the Indiana Reformatory from Jeffersonville to a point near the Middle of the State, legislators are considering the nature of the institution to be conducted and the character of the work being done therein.

Before merging the Reformatory and the Penal Farm the law-makers will give careful thought to the fact that while the Reformatory is at work rebuilding citizenship in usefulness and decency, along reform and educational lines, the Penal Farm in fact is a sort of enlarged, state-wide jail. There is a vast difference between a jail and a reformatory. In the jail the evil-doer is shorn of liberty and condemned to strict punishment without much regard to his future. Usually he is in for a short term, and the method used in penalizing him means "vindictive justice" rather than "reformation."

The Indiana Reformatory, on the other hand, under Superintendent G. A. H. Shideler, has very definite and distinctive purposes and features, and gets very reformative results. It would be a serious mistake to attempt to merge this institution with such an institution as the Penal Farm. The two would not mix at all.

For example, it is understood Superintendent Shideler plans an innovation at the Reformatory on lines such as are not even considered in connection with the ordinary jail or Penal Farm, and on lines which probably would not work with the average Penal Farm habitue.

With a special appropriation which has just been approved in the Legislature, it is proposed to provide "Sunday suits" for the young men and youths at the Reformatory. Each man and boy will have, his special Saturday afternoon "clean up", and will then put on a complete outfit of civilian clothing. Every pair of shoes will be polished. There will be haircuts and shaves and self-respect. Saturday afternoon and night and Sunday, the men under Superintendent Shideler will have an opportunity to feel "civilized", as if once more they were back in society.

This policy, which could not be worked out in any institution merged with the Penal Farm, is expected to assist the men in getting mentally morally and psychologically ready to return to the straight road for the future, following their departure from the Reformatory.

Superintendent Shideler, talking of the Reformatory and the young men, says: "Most of the offenders here have lived but one-third of their lives and have more than two-thirds yet to live for good or bad."

"We have received since October 1, from the courts, returned violators of paroles and returned escapees 377 up to Feb. 6 this year. All but twenty-three were direct from the courts on commitment. At this rate we will receive in the year 1,926 men, as against 500 or 600 per year in former years."

"It has been my rule wherever possible, and in most cases a religious duty, to see every one of these new arrivals within two weeks of his coming here. This enables the newcomer to meet the superintendent, learn our policies, rules and regulations, and what we are trying to do. He learns that it is his future we are interested in rather than his past, although, of course, the future is often influenced by the past."

"The other night a young fellow about 18 came in as a new arrival. I began to talk, giving him my story as is the custom. His lip curled,

He looked around the walls, at the pictures, and evidently merely endured my conversation because he had to.

"I broke off: 'Young man, I beg your pardon,' I remarked, 'I see I'm talking to the wrong boy. I was interested in you just as I am interested in every other boy who comes here. I have hopes for your betterment, I hope to correct in a measure some of your weaknesses and I am ambitious to see you go out with shoulders erect, eyes to the front, ready for life's battles, stronger rather than weaker for having been here. However, I find you are one of those smart boys who know more now than you will ever know again. There are so many here who are ready to accept our help that I will have to class you with the "goats" You are excused.'

"All the next day that boy was on my mind. I said to myself, "He is worth saving". I sent for him.

"I told him he was in the Niagara of life, in the grasp of the undertow. 'The falls are nearer than you think,' I told him, 'and over the falls the whirlpool and the rapids and a brief mention in the papers of a misguided and misspent youth life and a broken-hearted mother.'

"Now I am on the shore and I have a life-line. Here is the way you can get out and not go over the falls. I am anxious to throw you this life-line, but of course I do not want to throw it in vain. You must ask for it. If I can help you call on me. Good night!"

"He asked to see me the next evening and the two following nights. The fourth night I sent for him. He looked as if he had gone through a spell of sickness, I said: "Well, what is it, son?"

"I want the life-line, that's what I want!" he replied.

"Fine, I said, I threw him an imaginary rope. 'Grab on there,' I said. 'Now let me tell you something, boy, if you'll hold on to that line you and I will never separate. I never quit a boy first in my life. I'll put a rail up your back, hope in your heart and send you back to mother rejuvenated and a man, if you'll play square.'

"I'll say I will," was his answer. "That's the Reformatory at work. That work should go on."

EXPRESS COMPANY TO AID EUROPEAN RELIEF

"Invisible Guest" Certificates Are on Sale at the American Railway Express Offices

COST OF SAVING CHILD IS $10

Among the numerous agencies throughout the country co-operating with Herbert Hoover, Chairman of the European Relief Council, in his effort to raise $33,000,000 by means of a national collection for the relief of incipient starvation among 3,500,000 children in the war-stricken countries of Central and Eastern Europe are the American Express Company and the American Railway Express Company.

Through the authorization of G. C. Taylor, president of both organizations, "Invisible Guest" certificates, certifying that the purchaser has salvaged the life of one or more of the little war victims, have been placed on sale at 25,000 of the company's offices throughout the United States. The cost of saving one child until the acute condition has been relieved by the next European harvest is $10.00, but donations of smaller sums are welcome, and a contribution of only $1.00, under the economical administration of the Council, will keep life in a little body for a month.

The European Relief Council is an amalgamation of the American Friends Service Committee, American Red Cross, American Relief Administration, Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, Knights of Columbus, Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., formed by Mr. Hoover for the elimination of duplicate effort in ministering to the starving children, to the end that the last penny of every dollar contributed might reach a hungry child in the form of food or medical service.

"Invisible Guest" certificates, which can be purchased for any amount from $1.00 up, are on sale at the local office of the American Railway Express Company.

Charles Jarrett Injured When Machine is Hit by L. E. & W. Train at Spiceland

SUFFERS BROKEN NOSE

Spiceland, Ind., Feb. 19—Charles Jarrett, who narrowly escaped death when a truck which he was driving was struck by a train at the Main street crossing of the Lake Erie and Western railroad, was resting as well as could be expected today. He sustained a broken nose and several bad cuts and bruises about the head shoulders and legs, in the accident which occurred at about 12 o'clock yesterday.

Jarrett was driving the truck of Bundy and Griffin and drove the truck directly on to the L. E. & W. railroad before he noticed the approaching Rushville train. The train struck the front of the machine and carried the car and its driver for a distance of about twenty feet, finally coming to a stop after running the distance of nearly a block. Jarrett crawled from beneath the wrecked machine and was given medical attention later at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jarrett. It was found that his nose had been broken and that he had sustained several serious cuts.

The truck was nearly demolished, the front having been torn off in the collision.

* Find Cannonballs Fired *
* At Brandywine Battle *

Westtown, Pa. Feb. 19—Two cannon balls, believed to have been used by the Americans in the battle of Brandywine, were sold for five cents each at a public sale here recently. The balls, which are made of iron and battered by contact with stones weight one and three pounds respectively. They were discovered by a farmer while digging post holes. The farm is located on a ridge on which a portion of the Brandywine battle was fought, and which was occupied by Lord Cornwallis' troops September 11, 1777.

Miss Lora Agnes Spurrer will be hostess for the members of the Tri Kappa sorority Monday evening at her home, corner of Ninth and Morgan streets.

Mrs. Raymond Hargrove will be hostess for the members of the Coterie Monday afternoon at her home in West Seventh street. All members are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McMahon of West Fifth street delightfully entertained last evening with a prettily appointed six o'clock dinner.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Henry Alsop and family and Mr. and Gilbert Thomas.

Honoring F. H. Trabue's birthday anniversary, a delicious pitch-in supper was held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Trabue in North Harrison street. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Trabue and son Samuel, Jr.

Mrs. Helen Pierson was hostess for the members of the S. E. T. club yesterday afternoon at her home in West Third street. The guests present enjoyed the hours with an informal party over various kinds of needlework. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Members of the D. A. R. and invited guests will be entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Alice Norris in North Harrison street, with a Colonial party. Each member is entitled to bring a guest and they are requested to notify Miss Norris as to how many are coming. The meeting will be held in the evening instead of the afternoon as printed in the program. The occasion will be in memory of Lincoln's birthday, February 12, and Washington's birthday, February 22.

Mattox Circle, No. 51, ladies of the G. A. R., met in the assembly room at the court house yesterday afternoon, for the first regular meeting since the organization in this city. All members were present and a very interesting afternoon was enjoyed. Fourteen new members were taken into the Circle and fifteen others sent their cards for membership and will be taken in at the next meeting, which will be held in the assembly room the fourth day of March. After the meeting a social good time was held and much interest was shown by the new members.

Amusements

"The Whisper Market," Princess

"The Whisper Market," the new vehicle provided for Corinae Griffith by Vitagraph is an admirable example of an interesting story, well worked out for the screen, expertly directed, produced with extraordinary care, and acted by an all-star cast—in other words, a typical photoplay of the kind the public has learned to expect from Vitagraph.

The original magazine story which forms the basis of "The Whisper Market," was written by W. E. Seutt and has all the elements of a modern story of adventure and intrigue, with novel twists to add a zest to the unfolding of it. The scenario was arranged by Graham Baker, associate editor of Vitagraph.

George L. Sargent directed the production, and the result is a picture as good as he has ever turned out—which is the highest praise possible. The scene of the story is laid in Rio de Janeiro, the magnificent South American city, and no expense or time was spared to get locations and scenes which would reproduce faithfully the tropical beauty and the romantic New World Spanish atmosphere which combine to make South America the fascinating place it is. Real native types were engaged to add realism to the production.

Miss Griffith, as Erminie North, a leader of society in the American colony, acts with vigor, and makes her role a splendid portrayal of American womanhood—resourceful, beautiful, brilliant and devoted.

"The Whisper Market," containing all these guarantees of the best of production, may be seen at the Princess theater today.

A Sunshine comedy, "Pals and Petticoats," also is on the program today. Fatty Arbuckle in "Brewsters Millions" comes Monday and Tuesday.

"What Women Want," Mystic

"Heaven has no rage like a woman's love to hatred turned," writes Congreve, the great French author. This is the theme of "What Women Want," which is to be shown at the Mystic theatre Monday and Tuesday.

Francine D'Espard, a beautiful French girl, and William Holliday a young army officer, met in France and plighted their love. Holliday returned to America and found his father in the clutches of an unscrupulous manipulator who had stolen the control of the great Holliday mills from the old man.

Francine arrived in America shortly after, with the intention of marrying young Holliday, but was told that he was to wed the daughter of Bates.

This duplicity on the part of the man for whom she would have laid down her life turned her love to a flaming hate. It developed that she was a member of the United States Secret Service and turned her abilities toward the task of ruining young Holliday.

The story at this point became full of dramatic excitement and thrills. An unseen power was at work and just at the moment when she was to spring the trap upon her false lover, she learned that he had been true to her all the time.

Francine's work, however, proved that Bates was the cause of all of her troubles and had defrauded the government as well.

Bates was marched off between two detectives to answer for his wrong doing, while Francine married the man of her choice.

MILK FEEDING TRIED

Columbia City, Ind., Feb. 19—One hundred pints of milk were served to the grade school children of this city recently. Those children five pounds or more under weight were given the milk under a movement started by the anti-tuberculosis society. The first class to receive the milk was composed of thirty-six children who fled into the room where it was being served. Without exception, the children made short work to their half-pint portions.

FARM HOUSE DESTROYED

A tenant house on the Will Kincaid farm, between Sandusky and Williamstown, occupied by Charles Moulton, a tenant, and his family was destroyed by fire Thursday evening. The loss is estimated at $1,500. Mr. Moulton was away from home and Mrs. Moulton and children gave the alarm.

Walter D. Bean was winner in the spelling contest held at the second Baptist church last night.

MEET GOVERNOR McCRAE

Spiceland, Ind., Feb. 19—The seventh and eighth grade pupils of the academy and their teachers, S.
E. Pickering and Miss Lucile Poer, L. O. Draper, the civics class and teacher, Miss Ruth Harvey, and a number of parents, composed a party of twenty-four going to Indianapolis Wednesday on a special car to visit the legislature and other places of interest.

The party was introduced to the house of representatives and was informed that it was the largest delegation that had yet visited them.
An hour was also spent in the state senate and the climax came with a visit the legislature and other places
McCrae received the party in his private office and took time to shake hands with everyone. The visit to the Governor was especially appreciated.

The delegation also took in the state museum and made a trip to the Kingan packing plant. By special arrangement lunch was served to the twenty-four people in a private dining room of the Y. M. C. A.
The return trip was made on the special car leaving Indianapolis at 7 o'clock and all voted it had been a profitable and happy day.

TRADING OF STARS IS WINTER SPORT

New York Yankees Have Done Considerable Buying And Trading In Order to Make Team

NOW LOOK LIKE A WINNER

Deals May be Closed Before Season Opens Which Will Put Team in Field With All Big Players

By HENRY L. FARREL
New York, Feb. 19—Pennant winners in the American League, and world's champions for 1921—the New York Yankees.

The Woolworth Building may shrink to two stories over night, the Hudson River might be drained by an armless man with a sieve, Grant's Tomb might be turned into a saloon.

Countless other strange things might happen, but the strangest of all would be to see the Yanks fail to sweep the baseball field clean next season.

WHY?

Look at this team:
Pitchers, Coveleskie, Mails, Walter Johnson, Kerr, etc.; catchers, Ray Schalk, Steve O'Neil and Perkins; infielders, Judge Sisler, Collins, Wamby, Scott, Peckinpaugh, Ward, Gardner; outfielders, Rice, Ruth, Roth, Jacobson and Hooper; assistant managers, Cobb and Speaker.
True, they aren't all on the Ruppert-Huston pay-roll yet. But give 'em time. Plenty of days remain yet before the season opens and numerous trades are in the process of making.

New York sport writers have put Gotham fans through the tiring winter in history.

Practically every star player in the American League has been mentioned one or more times in some kind of a proposed deal just about closed by Manager Muggins.

Scribes in other cities of the circuit have risen up in a wrath against the practice of making news that is causing some of the star players in rumored deals to become dissatisfied. Some writers assert it is an inspired campaign.

A writer in Sporting News goes far as to recommend that New York be thrown out of both leagues.

The Giants have also figured prominently in the rumored trade activities. Rabbit Haranville, Heinie Drob, Rogers Hornsby and Eddis Roush were announced as almost sure acquisitions to the ranks of the National League Club during the winter. But so far they have not been secured and their chances of coming do not look worth the price of a czar's penny.

However, the Brooklyn Robins were spared. Uncle Robby pulled a real surprise when he traded Marquard for Renter without a month's campaign in the columns.

The Yanks have done a lot of trading and they look stronger on paper. The Giants really have been trying to get a good infielder but the Robins seem content to send the some candidates out to repeat last year's victory.

NEWCASTLE COMES TUESDAY

Odd Fellows Face Hard Game With Rose City Independents

The Odd Fellows basketball team will face another hard game here Tuesday night when the Newcastle "Rose City" independents will come for a game. The visiting team is reputed to have a good line-up of fast talent, and have sent advance word that they expect to take the Odd Fellows into camp. The Rushville team has been hitting a fast stride in recent games, and the visiting team may be forced to the limit if they expect a win. The Rushville five are confident that they will take the Rose City team, and will wade into them from the very start.

R. N. Miller, a former Rushville man, is in charge of the Rose City team, and promises to spring a few surprises on the Rushville team. A curtain raiser will be played beginning at 7 o'clock, between the Shamrocks and some other team, probably Raleigh.

MILROY WINS FROM SANDUSKY, 47 TO 32

Plays Neighboring Team Friday Night After Summitville Begs Off to Enter Tourney

FOURTH WIN OVER SANDUSKY

Milroy high school won on their own floor Friday night, 47 to 32, playing Sandusky instead of Summitville, Madison county, which cancelled in order to play in the tri-state tournament in Cincinnati this week-end. Milroy will play at Summitville next Friday night, even though Summitville begged off from the game last night.

Last night's victory was the fourth for Milroy over Sandusky this season. The Anderson township basketball team won the first game with the Decatur county lads by four points and defeated them in the Carthage and Milroy invitational tournaments. It is probable that the two teams may tie up again in the sectional tournament here in two weeks.

Milroy's scoring machine was working perfectly, Stewart, McKee and Osterling all caging field goals with ease. R. Marlowe, Sandusky floor guard, was the best point-getter on the visiting team. The line-up and summary follows:

Milroy (47)	Sandusky (32)
Stewart	Palmer
McKee	Warneke
Osterling	C. Marlow
D. Jones	R. Marlow
Harcourt	Richards

Field goals—Stewart 8, McKee 6, Osterling 6, R. Marlow 7, Palmer 3, C. Marlow 3, D. Jones, Cowan; foul goals—Stewart 3, R. Marlow 4, C. Marlow 2.

Substitutions—Cowan for D. Jones.

PLAY ON WINNING QUINTET

Rushville Boys on Five Taking Purdue Inter-Fraternity Honors

Two Rushville boys, John K. Tompkins and Cyril Caron, who are attending Purdue University, were on a winning basketball team in a series of contests at the college on Thursday night, when the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity team won the championship series between the Inter-Fraternity and Inter-Mural leagues. The tie game between the two leagues was played between the S. A. E. team and the Deacs. Each player of the winning team Thursday night was presented with a gold medal from Purdue University.

center for Fairview, proved too much for the smaller opponents, and during the game he marked up 40 of the points for his team.

The line up and summary:
Fairview (56) New Salem (12)
Duncan -----F----- M. Bever
McClain -----F----- Wilson
Peters -----C----- Allison
Parker -----G----- Ralston
Looney -----G----- J. Bever

Field goals: Duncan 4, McClain 2, Peters 19, Parker 2, Wilson 4. Foul goals: Peters 2, Wilson 4.

Manilla 17; Carthage 14

The best game of the morning took place when Carthage and Manilla took the floor at 10:10, and each team put up a big fight, with Manilla having a slight advantage over the opponents, winning out by the score of 17 to 14.

The two teams played hard in the first half, but the period ended with Manilla leading 8 to 4. The two Edwards players on the Manilla team seemed to be impossible to stop and they were almost certain on their shots.

Toward the end of the game Carthage took a spurt and could have won the game, but missed many shots that appeared to be easy ones.

The line up and summary:
Manilla (17) Carthage (14)
M. Edwards -----F----- Moore
O. Edwards -----F----- Black
Brown -----C----- Heathcock
Hutchens -----G----- Overman
Meid -----G----- Stewart

Substitutions: Carthage, Dyer, Brennan and Black. Field goals, Moore 3, Black, Heathcock, M. Edwards 4, O. Edwards 2, Brown. Foul goals: Moore 4, M. Edwards.

Arlington 28; Webb 19

The second game of the morning resulted in a victory for the Arlington team, when they defeated the Webb high school, 28 to 19.

This victory gave the Arlington team the right to play in the semifinals this afternoon at two o'clock against Rushville.

Right at the start of the game Nelson for Arlington opened up with the scoring for a long shot and his team jumped into the lead and were never headed, although the Webb team fought hard all of the way through. The first half ended 16 to 6.

Webb tried hard to stage a comeback in the last half but the lead piled up against them in the first half was too great to overcome.

The line-up and summary:
Arlington (28) Webb (19)
Rigsbee -----F----- Talbert
A. Birt -----F----- Martin
Nelson -----C----- Hill
Macy -----G----- Hillgoss
Marshall -----G----- Myers

Substitutions: Arlington, Mitchell, D. Birt, McDaniel.
Field goals, Rigsbee 2, A. Birt 7, Nelson 3, Talbert 4, Hillgoss.
Foul goals: Rigsbee 4, Talbert 5.

Rushville 30; Raleigh 6

In the opening game of the tournament at 8:30 this morning, the Rushville high school took the Raleigh team by the score of 30 to 6.

For the first five minutes of play the two teams fought on equal terms, Rushville seemed to be off form, and it was not until after E. Headlee opened up things until the rest of the team began to get warmed up. The score for a few minutes stood 3 to 2 in favor of Rushville, but the locals gradually walked away and the first half ended 19 to 2.

In the last half neither team displayed much real basketball. The red and black ran in three substitutes and the game ended with Rushville making 11 points in the final period.

The line up and summary:
Rushville Raleigh
L. Headlee -----F----- Poer
Miller -----F----- Laughlin
E. Headlee -----C----- Craig
Eakins -----G----- Hyatt
Frazee -----G----- Ertle

Substitutions: Rushville—Phillips, Reynolds and Davis. Raleigh: Fisher. Field goals—L. Headlee 2, Miller, E. Headlee 8, Eakins, Phillips, Davis, Poer, Laughlin. Foul goals, Eakins 2, Poer 2.

RALEIGH WINS ONE

The Raleigh high school basketball team defeated the New Lisbon high school quintet at Raleigh Friday night, 28 to 14. Raleigh led the way from the start and the visiting team never had much of a show.

FAMOUS "CUSTER WOLF" IS DEAD

For Nine Years He Terrorized Ranches and Escaped Hunters With Uncanny Elusiveness

BORE CHARMED LIFE, BELIEF

Department Reports Credited Him With Slaying $25,000 Worth of Livestock

Washington, Feb. 19—The famous "Custer Wolf" is dead.

Shorn of statistics, it is a story of animal savagery and cunning unexcelled even in fiction.

For nine years, the wolf terrorized ranches 100 miles about Custer, N. D., and escaped hunters and trappers with such uncanny elusiveness that legends of the range country endowed him with a monstrous craftiness they said could come only of a sinister mating of wolf and mountain lion.

Department reports credited him with slaying $25,000 worth of livestock. He was here one night, and tomorrow, a hundred miles across the hills; he slaughtered a dozen cattle, mutilating them with wanton lustfulness—a leg broken, a tail bitten off. The price on his head was raised from $100 to $500.

Hunters shot at him only to miss or have their pieces fail. He carried away traps and skirted poison bait disdainfully. Riders said he bore a charmed life, and they fingered their belts apprehensively at his ghoully wail out of the night. Once stockmen thought they had located him and called a round-up. The wolf escaped.

Four years ago, he lost his mate. He never took another. Finally, in March last year, H. P. Williams, government hunter, was ordered to the trail and not to return without the wolf. Williams scented his shoes and began laying traps. The old wolf, lured in great excitement by what he thought a possible mate, went to the Peglar mountains, cleared out two old dens and made a new one which ran 50 feet back under the hill.

On April 1, Williams sighted his quarry only to learn of new difficulties. The wolf had enlisted two coyotes as guards, one traveling 100 to 200 yards on either flank. Repeatedly baffled by the guards, Williams shot them. The wolf escaped.

Twice in May the wolf sprung traps. July 3 he lay down on one, losing some hair, scuttling from the region like a gray ghost, but a month later he returned, killing several cattle and crippling others. An accident saved him from Williams. In September he lost some more hair in a trap, but escaped.

Seven months after Williams took the trail, the end came. The wolf's forefoot picked up a trap. He tore it from its moorings. A hundred and fifty yards away it caught on a tree but he broke its swivel. Three miles beyond Williams sighted him.

"I expected the gun would fail to shoot, but it worked O. K. He is smaller than the average wolf, weighed 98 pounds," Williams's report said. "He is an old wolf, with a fur that is almost white."

HELP THE WOGLUMNI

Washington, Feb. 19.—The next destructive invasion of America government officials forecast today, may come from Aleurocanthus Woglumi. The invasion already has spread from India to Cuba and Central America, entomologists said, devastating citrus orchards. Aleurocanthus Woglumi is a small black fly easily routed by a soap emulsion barrage, according to the experts.

UNIDENTIFIED MAN SHOT BY POLICEMAN

Cyrus Rogers of Crawfordsville Police Force Engages in Running Gun Battle Today

FIRE ON WITHOUT WARNING

(By United Press)
Crawfordsville, Ind., Feb. 19.—An unidentified man was killed here early today in a running gun battle with Cyrus Rogers, a member of the Crawfordsville police force.

Rogers had come to the eastern part of the city to get a suitcase. When he neared the Vandalia and Big Four junction, a man stepped out of a pumping station. Considering his appearance, Rogers suspected the man and told him to come along to the police station. The man pulled a revolver from his clothing and fired one shot and stated, "Now get me if you want me now". The bullet struck Rogers in the arm.

Rogers then drew his revolver and fired at the man who started to run away. The first shot went wild, but the second time the bullet struck the man just above his heart and he died almost instantly.

Another man then emerged from the pumping house and ran away. A posse of citizens were immediately organized and started to scour the country-side for him.

company was changed to the Farmers Trust company, and when he left the business, Mr. Irvin was the president. During his business career he was also interested in the telephone company here.

Mr. Irvin also was the founder of the Rushville Glove company, in 1909, which has enjoyed a substantial growth, and was its president at the time of his death.

Mr. Irvin always prided himself on being the first person in the city to acquire new devices. He brought the first bicycle to Rushville, and also had the first typewriter, the first automobile and the first dictaphone.

Mr. Irvin was elected mayor on the republican ticket in November, 1917, after having won the nomination in the primaries in the spring of the same year, and would have completed his term December 31 of this city. The city council will elect his successor within fifteen days as prescribed by law.

Mr. Irvin was married to Miss Hannah Scanlon in this city, September 6, 1877. Mrs. Irvin died several years ago.

The only survivors are one daughter, Mrs. Effie M. Kiser of St. Louis, one sister, Mrs. D. H. Dean of this city, and one brother, Albert Irvin of Ancon, Canal Zone, Panama.

GUY'S PARENTS DIDN'T GET HIS VIEWPOINT

Evansville, Ind., Feb. 19.—Guy Purcell, Jr., six-year-old boy, has a very good friend named Jimmy Lynch. So Guy was highly elated when his parents named a new-born brother Jimmy. But his elation turned to disappointment when he learned that his brother couldn't play with him for a long time.

So Guy brought little Jimmy over to his house, dressed him up in pajamas and put him in bed and then went to his parents, urging them to send the baby back to the Lynch home and keep the Lynch youngster so he could have a constant playmate. The parents, however, couldn't see the matter from Guy's viewpoint.

BULLETIN ON BIRD FEEDING IS ISSUED

Much Valuable Data is Given on How, When and What to Feed the Feathered Friends

ISSUED BY AUDUBON SOCIETY

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 19.—The Indiana Audubon Society has issued a bulletin on the winter feeding of birds that should be in the hands of every bird lover and natural history student in the state. Much valuable data is given on how, when and what to feed the feathered friends during periods when snow and ice prevail and make it difficult for birds to find natural food. The suggestion is made that citizens scatter grain, oatmeal and hand out strips of suet.

The bulletin enumerates eleven native birds that to a great extent winter in Indiana, and recites some personal experiences of the author in his observations. The state department of conservation is co-operating with the Audubon Society in its efforts to interest Hoosiers in the economic value of augmented bird life in this state.

ciation is one of the most wide awake, breeders' organization in the state. Although only a little over a year old this organization has accomplished a great deal of good and the way they are taking hold of a definite program indicates that greater accomplishments will be obtained in 1921.

The organization has for its purpose the promotion of the Big Type China breed in Rush county and the encouragement of swine improvement in general. It meetings are open to the public and any one interested in better hogs are welcome to attend, whether Poland China breeders or not.

The meeting convened at 10 o'clock and the members enjoyed a banquet at noon at the Scanlon Hotel, after which the meeting was given over to discussion of what work the association would take up during the year.
